DEAR LODGE MEMBERS,

It is hard to believe that pandemic protocols have been lifted and that we can slowly start to feel less 'anxious' about getting together. I hope that this newsletter finds you well and that you might entertain celebrating this landmark of new 'freedom' by coming out and joining us to a recently scheduled scholarship dinner on Tuesday evening, June 22nd. Our Grand Lodge President, Denise Furnari, will be our speaker and guest, along with our scholarship recipients and members of their families. Please see the scholarship flyer for all the details.

Prior to our dinner, we will have a brief meeting where we will conduct an installation of our officers as required. President Denise Furnari will help officiate. Later in the evening, she will update us on the past year of Grand Lodge 'happenings'.

Please remit payment for the dinner with your choice of entrée as soon as possible, along with any reserved seating arrangement with friends that you would prefer. There is not much time (function coordinator was on vacation and we were waiting for protocols to become updated) so your quick replies will be most appreciated! Please try to come as we have not seen each other in sooo long!! If weather cooperates, we will eat outside. If not, we have a spacious banquet room to spread out in to conduct our business and dining. Members may or may not wear masks; it is up to each individual.

Local town officials have announced that there will be a town-wide Norwood Day event on Saturday, Sept. 18th. Our booth has customarily been well-staffed with lodge members, and has been a fun and successful time with raffles, etc. It is a membership publicity event for our lodge and offers us another opportunity to sell our cookbooks. We will need volunteers for this event.

President Eosco will attend State Convention on June 12th and Vice-president Nick Campagna, jr. will attend virtually. They will report briefly on their experience to the members on June 22nd.

COOKBOOKS are still available for purchase at $15 each. Please spread the word as proceeds help fund our scholarship program. If any member wants one, please let me know.

Hope to see you soon!

Steven J. Eosco, President
