Dear Lodge Members,

I hope everyone is doing well. Although Springtime is struggling to bring us warmer weather, we know it is near. It is nice to have the sunlight until later in the day with the clocks turned one hour forward. With that in mind, I hope some members will consider returning to meetings soon.

There will be a lodge meeting on Wednesday, April 6th at 7 pm at our location at the VFW Post on Dean St. While the agenda is not long, it will be an opportunity to meet in person. Please note there is a possibility that I might not be able to preside over the meeting myself. In that event, please give our Vice-present Nick Campagna, your usual friendly assistance in setting up the hall properly for the meeting.

The Scholarship Committee awaits the arrival of scholarship applications by the April 15th deadline. Meanwhile, a Scholarship Awards Dinner is scheduled at the Four Points Sheraton on Tuesday, June 7th, starting with a social at 6:30 pm in the Zachariah Room. Unfortunately, prices have gone up a bit and the ticket price is $45.00. There will be more details in the flyer next month. I hope many of you will be able to come and show your support for our high school scholarship recipients. Please place the date in your calendars. We need a commitment of 40 persons to hold this event. We had a great time last year and enjoyed socializing together.

The Grand Lodge Annual Convention will be held June 18th at the Quincy Sons of Italy. Delegates Steve & Toni Eosco will attend.

I attended a Zoom meeting with State President, Denise Furnari and several other local lodge presidents participating online. Grand Lodge events were discussed including Education and Law Awards Breakfast on Sunday, May 1st at Doubletree Hotel in Andover. Tickets are $35.

Please inform Fran Ailinger at 781-769-3692 of any member who is ill or recovering and in need of cheer and well-wishes.

Happy Spring!

Steve Eosco, President
