Dear Lodge Members,

Hope everyone had a nice Easter. I look forward to seeing everyone at our next meeting. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate.

There will be a lodge meeting on Wednesday, May 4th at 7 pm at our location at the VFW Post on Dean St. Thank you to those who were able to attend the meeting last month when I was away. My thanks to Vice-president, Nick Campagna, for conducting the meeting, and to Winnie Carfagno for taking the minutes..

The members of the Scholarship Committee (Toni Eosco, Barbara Campagna, Winnie Carfagno) are currently reviewing several scholarship applications. Meanwhile, a Scholarship Awards Dinner is scheduled at the Four Points Sheraton on Tuesday, June 7th, starting with a social at 6:30 pm in the Zachariah Room. Prices have gone up a bit and our Lodge suggests subsidizing the ticket price by $5 to keep the per person cost at $40.00. This subsidy requires a vote of the membership to be taken up at the May meeting. The Council Members have already approved of the subsidy for your consideration. Assuming its passage, attached in this newsletter is the scholarship flyer with all the details. I hope many of you will be able to come and show your support for our high school scholarship recipients. Please place the date in your calendars. We need a commitment of 40 persons to hold this event. Guests/friends are most cordially invited at the full cost of $45 per person. Remember to include your choice of meal entrée and please include a note describing any preferred seating arrangements, if any

The Grand Lodge Annual Convention will be held June 18th at the Quincy Sons of Italy. Delegates Steve & Toni Eosco will attend.

Ecumenical Food pantry donations can be brought to the lodge meeting. There is still need for many items, but especially for tuna, spaghetti, canned beef stew, canned fruit, chili, hash and cold cereal

Please inform Fran Ailinger at 781- 769-3692 of any member who is ill, recovering, or in need of cheer and well-wishes.

Happy May!

Steve Eosco, President
