A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT...

As 2013 comes to a close I have mixed emotions - a year in which we lost many loved brothers and sisters, and yet a year in which our members worked together to further the mission of our Lodge. Our two major fundraisers, the yard sale and fashion show, were most successful. We honored our scholarship recipient at an enjoyable dinner in June and had a fun time at the Summer Social. Norwood Day resulted in a record success, and the Chateau fundraiser enriched our treasurer with over $200. We have a lot to be thankful for, and yet we must not forget the loved ones we have lost. As we begin 2014 we look forward to a successful and healthy year for all our members and their families. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

George Franco
